

Public Companies

Experienced Advisors

At Hancock Askew, our ability to consistently deliver the ideal combination of expertise, service, and price to publicly traded companies has earned us a reputation as an attractive alternative to the Big 4 and national firms. In working with Hancock Askew, you will experience the combined benefits of high level expertise and personalized service. Our streamlined, accessible organizational structure means our firm is able to mobilize quickly to service our public company clients, ensuring flexibility and responsiveness to your changing needs.

Our Value

Hancock Askew's versatility is especially important for small public companies, which may not have the resources to stay on top of ongoing regulatory and reporting requirements, and therefore benefit greatly from our more collaborative approach. Our reasonable fees are another exceptional benefit, one that leaves more of your dollars focused on operations, generating profit and optimizing shareholder value.
