

Tax Compliance & Consulting

Advisory & Compliance

Hancock Askew & Co., LLP is a full service tax advisory and compliance firm. We have a diverse set of clients who utilize us to help them create a tax strategy in alignment with their organizational plan. The firm has clients throughout the United States and also provides support for organizations with international tax issues. We manage the required compliance filings for their income tax needs, as well as prepare or coordinate their sales, payroll, local or specialized tax matters.

Tax Leadership Support

Our professionals assist organizations from start-up to advanced entities. We provide complex tax planning to basic tax compliance and can assist with specialized needs such as mergers and acquisitions, divestitures and restructuring efforts. Our team will take a leadership position to prepare your tax strategies and ensure all tax compliance needs are handled. We have experts who will manage your international, federal, state and local tax matters and address your personal tax planning and preparation needs.

Communications Process

This is key to our process. We talk with our clients throughout the year and help them with projections and questions they may have and manage any inquiries from the IRS or other regulatory bodies. Our professionals ask the right questions and become a vital part of your efforts.
