"You First"

Our firm thrives when our clients are successful. At Hancock Askew we don't just focus on numbers; we get to know our clients and their goals so we can provide solutions to best address their needs. We learn what drives their organization and regularly meet with clients to plan and monitor progress. Our leadership is accessible and involved in engagements and we deliver the personalized interaction that helps our clients excel.

Our Clients

Our clients include for-profit businesses, publicly traded companies, not-for-profit organizations, government run entities and high net worth individuals. The common thread is that Hancock Askew becomes their trusted advisor and designs support to help them move through different stages of their organizational lifecycle. We realize each client is unique and even like-kind organizations that appear to have common needs may require materially different support.

Extensive Resources

Hancock Askew is a member of the BDO Alliance USA. Through this alliance our firm has access to additional experts and office locations throughout the world. Whatever opportunities arise or obstacles that surface, Hancock Askew has the depth and insight to proactively plan for and handle those needs wherever they may be.
